Help Save the Life of Ismail Mohammadi a Kurdish Political Activist in Iran

In the last few months, the Islamic Republic of Iran has executed a number of Kurdish political activists in Kurdistan of Iran on the basis of political beliefs in order to create fear and to silence the voices of objection.

We have informed you before that on the 19th of February 2003, Saasaan Aal-Kanaan a Kurdish political activist and a supporter of Komala was executed in the city of Sanandaj in Kurdistan of Iran. On the second of March of 2003, Mohammad Golabi another Kurdish political activist and supporter of Komala was executed in the prison of the city of Saghez. Finally on the 8th of July of 2003, Farahmand Sadeh Vaziri was executed under torture in Salmas prison after having been arrested for only one week. And now we have been informed that in the last few days, Ismail Mohammadi (file number 1564) born in 1965 in the city of Bukan, Kurdistan who was arrested in 2002 has been convicted due to his political beliefs and his support for Komala. He is sentenced to death by the Islamic courts of Uromie. Mr. Mohammadi is married and has five children.

The Islamic Republic of Iran is continuing their inhumane and oppressive policies and this time with the execution of Ismail Mohammadi they have added yet another name to the list of those innocently executed due to their beliefs.

We hereby wish to ask you and all humanitarian organizations, media and individuals to make every possible effort to withdraw Ismail Mohammadi's death sentence. We ask all human rights organization to put pressure on Islamic Republic of Iran to annul Mr. Mohammadi's death sentence and prevent this barbaric act from taking place. Although Ismail Mohammadi is the most recent victim taken by Islamic Republic of Iran but he most certainly will not be the last victim who will be executed due to his political beliefs. All efforts must be made to prevent the Islamic government of Iran to continue their brutal executions.
